

Easter represents new beginnings and a time to have an open mind. This is why the Cordell Christian Home activity team thought that this month would be a great time to introduce some new and exciting activities to CCH residents and staff!

We all get along so well here at CCH and many of us have very similar interests. So, we are going to start a few Resident Clubs; the Book Club, Garden Club, Cooking Club, and Helping Hands Club! If you have a passion for a good book, getting your hands dirty in some soil or in dough, or if you love to do house work then one of these clubs will be perfect for you!

Since we are going to be spending more time together, we figured it would also be smart to have a few activities to help us get to know each other better! Easter Memories(8th) will be a wonderful time to reminisce about past Easters, The Cold Hard Truth(15th) will be a great time for you to tell us fascinating facts about yourself, Today's Fashions(29th) will be a time to voice your observations about today's clothing, and Girly Things and Boyish Games(22nd) will be a fun time when the girls can talk and the guys can bond over a game of cards.

We hope to integrate many of these new activities into our monthly routine. So, let us know what you think! We hope the new activities will be interesting and enjoyable for everyone!

The Easter Story

Jesus came to compensate
 For all the wrongs we do.
 He came to earth to die for us,
 So we'd be born anew.
 "This bitter cup, let it pass
 from me,"
 He cried, in a plaintive voice;
 "Yet not My will, but Thine be done;"
 He said, in His faithful choice.
 The Judas kiss would seal his fate;
 He faced a hostile crowd;
 The governor, Pilate, saw
 through it all;
 Jesus' guilt he disavowed.
 "I wash my hands of all of this,"
 Said Pilate, "Let Him be."
 But the crowd yelled "Crucify
 him now,
 And set Barabbas free!"
 Pilate yielded to their wish;
 And Jesus was led away.
 The soldiers beat him, and mocked Him, too,
 Yet He continued to obey.
 A crown of thorns lay on His head,
 As His sentence was carried out;
 His hands and feet were
 pierced with nails,
 But He did not scream or shout.
 "Father, forgive them for this crime;
 They know not what they do."

 He said this despite His torment, because,
 He was thinking of me and you.
 "It is finished," he sighed in
 His anguish and pain,
 As His body gave up to death.
 The curtain tore, and
 darkness fell,
 After He took His last breath.
 The best of the story is the very last part;
 It's why on Easter we're filled with pleasure:
 Death could not our Savior
 hold;
 His power is beyond all measure.
 He rose from the grave, and
 was seen all around;
 Ever since, He's inspired
 devotion,
 And we'll be with Him for
 eternity,
 When we get our heavenly promotion.
 That's why Easter is a major event:
 He suffered and died in our place.
 He rose and forgave us and loves us still,
 Our Savior of matchless
 grace.
