A Break from the Heat

This summer has been a hot one! Temperatures were beginning to reach over 112 ° and everyone's grass and gardens were dying! Fortunately, all of our moaning and groaning was overheard in the heavens and the last couple of weeks have been filled with cooler temperatures and rain!

The rain began to really come down last Monday. At first the humidity was dreadful but by the time Wednesday rolled around we were blessed with a cool breeze and perfect cloudy sky.

If you looked around town last week you would have noticed that all of the lawns were green again, flowers started coming back to life, and people were walking around town taking advantage of the wonderful weather! I'm sure everyone would love for that type of weather to stay until fall arrives.

Unfortunately, we don't get to choose the weather. So, be prepared for the remainder of the summer to be hot. However, when the weather is nice, take advantage of it! A relaxing walk with the dog or a nap in the breeze can do a person good! Hope to see you out and about!

Rain

I opened My eyes
AND LOOKed up at the rain,
AND it dripped IN My Head
AND FLOWed into My brain,
AND ALL that I HEar AS I Lie IN My bed
IS THE SLISHity-SLOSH OF THE rain IN My Head.

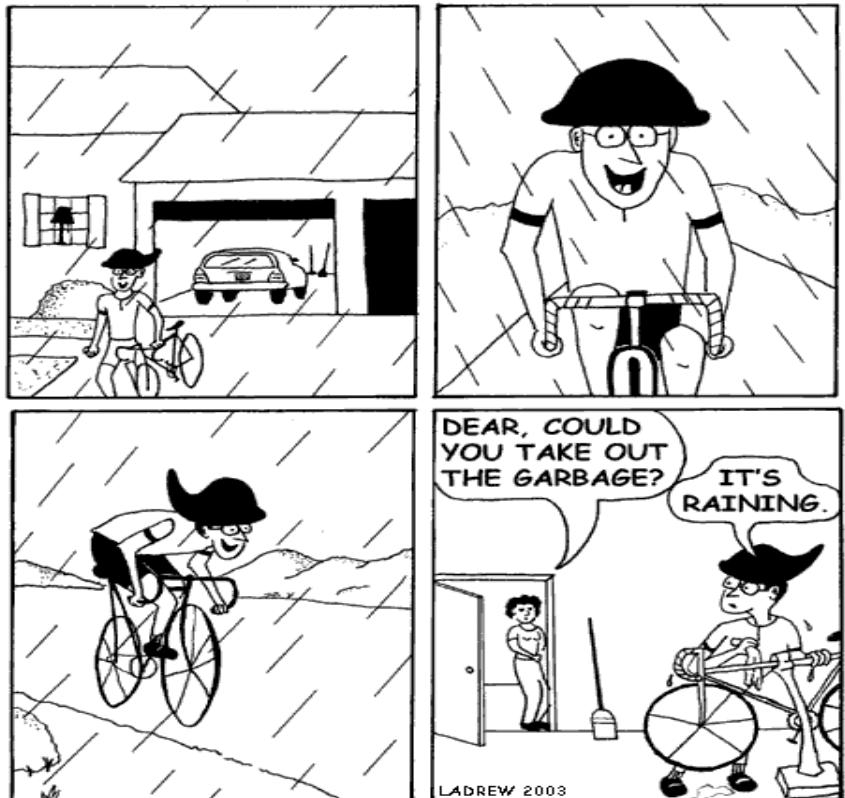

I Step very SOFTly,
I WALK very SLOW,
I can't do a HANDStand--
I MIGHT overFLOW,
SO pardon the WILD crazy THING I JUST Said--
I'M JUST NOT THE SAME SINCE there'S rain IN My Head.

Weekly Devotional

Start the Day Off Right

In the morning, O Lord, You hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before You and wait in expectation.

Psalm 5:3

Start the day off right. Thank the Lord for the day he has given you. Pray for him to bless you and your family. Also end your day in a prayer. The days will become easier if you do so.
