

Resident's Digest

IN HOME JOURNAL

It is finally Valentine's Day week! This is a week that many look forward to but many also despise. So here at the Cordell Christian Home we don't see it as holiday just for those with significant others. We also see it as a wonderful time to tell anyone important to you, how much you love them! So this week we are going to celebrate Valentine's Day at CCH as a family!

Valentine's Day will be this Saturday, February the 14th. So, for everyone to be able to have a great time, we are going to be celebrating it a day early. At 2:00 on the 13th will be the activity Valentine's Day and Will You Be My Sweetheart will take place at 4:00. Also on Friday will be the crowning of the Valentine's Day King and Queen! Votes will be put into a jar throughout the week and on Friday two very special residents will be crowned as royalty! And yes, every resident in the Cordell Christian Home is eligible to win!

This week, take time to hug your mother, father, your children, and your friends, and let them know how special they are to you. Remember, God made your heart big enough to love all who you are willing to let in and that is what Valentine's Day is truly all about.

Guess What!

- ♥ You give me to those special people on Valentine's Day.
- ♥ I say sweet things that touch the heart.
- ♥ You can buy me at the store or make a special one of me for your sweetheart.
- ♥ I am usually made of paper.
- ♥ I come in all different sizes.
- ♥ I can come with flowers, chocolate, or even teddy bears.
- ♥ Make sure to put your name on me unless you are a secret admirer.

Today I Got a Valentine

By

Kenn Nesbitt

*Today I got a valentine
from everyone but Kay.*

But that's all right...

I never liked her that much anyway.

She doesn't like my favorite bands.

Her socks don't often match.

She never trades her Oreos.

She isn't good at catch.

She doesn't play computer games.

She wears her hair in braids.

She's something of a teacher's pet

and always gets good grades.

She dots her i's with little hearts.

She's always reading books.

Whenever I'm around, she gives me

such confusing looks.

But oh my goodness, here comes

Kay—

and what is this I see?

It seems she has an extra special valentine for me.

It's big and red and has the words,

"Will you be mine today?"

I've always said there's no one else

I like as much as Kay!

Weekly Devotional Strength from the Heart

The joy of the Lord is your strength.
Nehemiah 8:10

Do not lean on others and do not find strength within the insignificant.
Your strength comes from your heart for that is where God resides.
