Celebrate the Red, White, and Blue

Last Friday's 4th of July Picnic turned out to be a complete success! The decorations were beautiful, the food was mouthwatering, and every seat was filled with family and friends. The Cordell Christian Home always puts on great parties and Friday's did not fall short.

The 4th of July Picnic was not only a great time for everyone to mingle but it was a wonderful way to put everyone in a patriotic mood. People were dressed in red, white, and blue and singing the Star Spangled Banner. Now everyone is ready for the 4th of July so they can set off fireworks in the celebration of this great nation!

Friday's party could not have turned out as well as it did without the help of everyone! Thank you to the nurses for helping our residents enjoy the party, the activity team for the wonderful decorations, to management for helping put on a wonderful party, and to Al and our wonderful cooks for the fulfilling food! Friday was incredible and it was because of all of you!

If you are planning on celebrating the 4th of July this Saturday, make sure to have a great time and stay safe! We hope you have a wonderful Independence Day!

RIDDLE OF THE WEEK

Brad stared through the dirty soot-smeared window on the 22nd floor of the office tower. Overcome with depression he slid the window open and jumped through it. It was a sheer drop outside the building to the ground. Miraculously after he landed he was completely unhurt. Since there was nothing to cushion his fall or slow his descent, how could he have survived the fall?

Answer: Brad was so sick and tired of window washing, he opened the window and jumped inside.

Mithing Tooth

I'm having trouble
thpeaking,
thinthe | loht my middle
tooth.

Jutht yetherday my tooth wath fine --
today it wiggled loothe.

At firht | thought it
thilly,

when my tooth fell out
today,

But no one theems to
underhtand
a thingle word | thay.

| athked my mom to
clothe the door,
she thaid "That would be rude.

The door does not like
wearing clothes;
it's happy in the nude."

| thaid a mouthe wath in
my room
and she should come

and thee.

She thaid "your mouth
is on your face;
it's right where it should be."

| wonder if you
underhtand

the thircumthtanthe |'m
in.

| told her | wath feeling
thick.

She thaid "you're looking thin."

At latht she thaw how
mad | wath,

And thought | might
thtop breathing.

She laughed and thaid

she didn't mean it --

She wath only teething.

Weekly Devotional

Do Not Be Controlled By Sin

The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace; the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God.

Romans 8:6-8

Look towards the Lord and His word for peace and answers. Do not be controlled by sin. Know that God will be with you in all your trials. He is all you need.
