

Resident's Digest

IN HOME JOURNAL

St. Patrick's Week

This week at the Cordell Christian Home is going to be very exciting! On top of all of the great activities planned, CCH residents and staff also get to enjoy a St. Patrick's Day party! So put on your green clothes. It is going to be a very festive Irish week!

Tuesday, March 17th, is St. Patrick's Day and also the day of our St. Patty's Party here at CCH! It is the first time that the Cordell Christian Home has ever had a St. Patrick's Day party and everyone is so excited to see what in store for the big day! The party will begin at 1:30. We hope to see you there in your green clothes and Irish attire!

Our little CCH leprechauns have done a lot of work on the St. Patrick's Day decorations and have spent a lot of time planning the party. So we hope that everyone gets to attend this very exciting event! It will be a Cordell Christian Home memory that you will definitely want to be part of!

Last Week's
Bingo
Winner:
Judy Winn

THE BARREL RACE

Jessie was the master of the western rodeo.

Her name was known from Texas to the state of Idaho.

She rode her horse from town to town, and everywhere she went, she proved herself the master of each rodeo event.

She rode the bucking broncos, and she wrestled down the steers.

She roped the calves in record time to whistles, shouts, and cheers.

But one day Jess heard hollering, and following the roar, she watched a competition she had never seen before.

They called it barrel racing, an event of speed and skill.

And Jessie said, "I've never tried, but I believe I will."

The challenge of this new event was plain enough to see.

The barrels marked the racing track, and there were only three.

So Jessie checked the stirrups as she saddled up her horse, and soon the two were speeding through that barrel racing course.

The crowd was up and cheering as they rounded barrel one,

and Jessie whooped and gave a shout, "Now this is heaps of fun!"

They rounded barrels two and three.

The cheers were loud and steady.

But Jessie thought, "It seems a shame to end this race already.

If I've had this much fun before, I can't remember when."

She spurred her horse and gave a shout, "Let's go around again!"

The crowd was quite bewildered when they saw she wasn't through.

They watched her turn her horse again from barrel one to two.

At barrel three, the people thought she surely must be done, but once again she circled and went back to barrel one.

The people stared in wonder.

They could not believe their eyes.

The minutes turned to hours, and the moon began to rise.

So one by one, they headed home, and soon the crowd was gone.

But through it all, that girl and horse kept racing on and on.

The crowd returned next afternoon to see if Jess was done,

and there she was, still riding hard as if she'd just begun.

But all that time upon the track and racing 'round and 'round had left a valley six or seven inches in the ground.

By supper time the horse had dug that valley all the deeper.

The floor was nearly eight feet down. The walls were growing steeper.

And still she smiled and still she traveled fast and fancy-free, but Jessie's dusty cowboy hat was all the folks could see.

Now years have come and years have gone since Jess began that ride.

And no one's seen her since those days, although some folks have tried.

But somewhere near a canyon, if you listen now and then, perhaps you will hear Jessie shout, "Let's go around again!"

BY ERIC ODE

During Holi, a Hindu festival celebrating Spring, residents of Kolkata and other Indian cities toss and smear colored powder on one another. - Time Magazine

This Week's Activities

Monday, March 16th

- 9:00 Five Alive
- 9:30 Nails & Tales
- 1:30 Games
- 2:30 Let's Talk
- 4:00 Reach for the Sky

Tuesday, March 17th

- 9:00 Five Alive
- 10:00 Bingo
- 1:30 St. Patrick's Day Party
- 4:00 Trivia

Wednesday, March 18th

- 9:00 Beacon
- 10:00 Devotional
- 2:00 Popcorn & a Movie
- 4:00 Touch Your Toes

Thursday, March 19th

- 9:00 Five Alive
- 10:00 Bingo
- 11:45 Comedy Club
- 1:30 Games
- 2:30 Back in the Day
- 4:00 Charades

Friday, March 20th

- 9:00 Five Alive
- 10:00 Bingo
- 1:30 Games
- 2:00 One Hour Country Store
- 4:00 Pump it Up

Saturday, March 21st

- 10:30 Coffee & Conversation
- 3:30 Movie

Sunday, March 22nd

- 9:00 Worship
- 2:00 Movie

Weather Compliments of: Weather.com		High / Low (°F)	Precipitation %
Mon Mar 16	 Mostly Sunny	75°/44°	10 %
Tue Mar 17	 Partly Cloudy	80°/47°	10 %
Wed Mar 18	 Sunny	79°/46°	0 %
Thu Mar 19	 Mostly Sunny	66°/42°	10 %
Fri Mar 20	 Mostly Cloudy	68°/41°	10 %
Sat Mar 21	 Showers	64°/41°	60 %
Sun Mar 22	 Sunny	67°/47°	0 %

Weekly Devotional

He Will Give You Peace

Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:28

Whenever you feel like the world is against you, turn towards God. He will give you peace. He never turns his back on his children.