IN HOME JOURNAL

October 2009

Another month is passing. The weather now stays at a wonderful 70-80 degrees throughout the day and fall has made it clear that it is here to stay until winter takes over. It is time to get into the fall spirit!

At the Cordell Christian Home we know how to have fun and this month is going to be full of good times and great memories. In addition to the calendar holidays: Columbus Day, National Boss Day, United Nations Day, and Halloween; the City of Cordell will be having its annual Pumpkin Festival on the 10th and CCH will be having the Chili Cook-off and October Birthday Celebration this month!

The CCH staff is feeling ghoulish and you will be seeing Halloween decorations and crazy costumes around the facility. There will also be a lot of exciting Halloween activities throughout the month. So don't miss out! It is going to be so fun, it's SCARY!

"First my ball rolled under the sofa, then my water dish was too warm, then the squeaker broke on my rubber pork chop. I've had a horrible day and I'm totally stressed out!!!"

Noah's Ark

Ancient Noah had an ark.
He filled it up by day and dark with mammals from the local zoo.

They walked the plank up, two by two.

And also, after quite a while,
the lizard and the crocodile,
the ostrich and the spotted owl and countless types of fancy fowl.

Too bad he also packed some worms,
some flies, some spiders and some germs,
some poison snakes and biting gnats,
(but also friendly dogs and cats).

"Hark, come aboard." He used that phrase
as people talked weird in those days.
(Though far as scholars can distinguish,
we're sure that he did not speak English.

There is one fact that I abhor:
he did not pack one dinosaur or tiger with a saber tooth.
He plain forgot, that is the truth.

Weekly Devotional

Help Those Less Fortunate

Defend the cause of the weak and fatherless; maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed. Rescue the weak and needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

Psalm 82:3-4

Help those less fortunate than yourself. Remember, when you think things are going bad, someone somewhere is going through something worse. Care for others as the Lord cares for you.
