A Week for Our Nation

Two very important days take place this week. Labor Day, September 7th, and Patriot Day, September 11th, are holidays that are not to be forgotten. They look like mere titles to our eyes but they mean so much more.

Labor Day is a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made for the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country. If it wasn't for the laborers of this country, we would have nothing. Americans are strong and have the will to work for their freedoms and possessions. Take time on September 7th to remember those who work hard for this country every day.

Patriot Day is the remembrance of the terrorist attack made on the United States in New York City on September 11th. This was the day when the country put aside their individual differences and joined hands to fight for their country. We must remember to keep this bond on Patriot Day and every other day.

Both of these national holidays represent the strength and will of the American people. We have fought and died for our freedoms and will continue until peace connects our world. This week is for our nation and for us, as Americans. Never Forget. Never Surrender.

Lead Me Down

Look up from your table and put down your wine,
quiet the minstrels at play.
Ask why I weep, well I bear you
the news
of innocents fallen today.

The high rising spires that gleamed in the sun
lie broken and charred by the shore.

The four shining ships with the clouds in their sails
will glide 'neath the heavens no
more.

Lead me down,
lead me down to the river,
wash what I've seen from my eyes.
I would weep by the water for
innocence fallen,
fallen to nevermore rise.

He Made it Happen

As long as Uzziah sought the LORD, God gave him success.

...But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall.

2 Chronicles 26:5b,16a

Many lose sight of God once they reach success or power. However, we should grow closer to the Lord with success. For, it is He who truly made it happen.
